The Last Great Places

Formed and maintained by the partnership of wind and sea, Guadalupe-Nipomo Dunes represent one of the most fragile and fascinating habitats on the Pacific Coast.

Dear Commissioner Kenney,

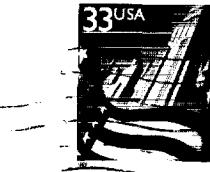

I am very concerned about the safety of the food I choose to eat. As a consumer it is my right to know if the food I am eating has been genetically altered. These foods pose many unknown risks.

Please guide the F.D.A. to protect its citizens by calling for labels on transgenic foods.

Thank you for your time and attention. Sincerely, David Lopez
